20 THINGS

YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT
DAVID UNTIL NOW

What are 3 words people use to describe you?

Trust, Empathy, Passionate.

If happiness were the national currency, what kind of work would make you rich?

Telling people where they can spend eternity.

Name one thing not many people know about you.

I got saved listening to a radio show 11-10-86.

What did you want to be when you were a child?

Lawyer or engineer.

What are you most grateful for in your life?

I am thankful and blessed for my salvation and my family.

What is the best advice you've ever been given?

How I can spend eternity in Heaven.

What are your Top 3 all time favorite movies?

10 Commandments, Faith Is Not Dead, Case for Christ.

What is your greatest achievement and how has it shaped you?

Having my own business and being able to help a lot of people enjoy and protect their nest egg and leave a legacy.

What book has influenced you the most and why?

Bible. I have read it 30 times.

What one thing have you not done in your life that you really want to do?

Go on an Alaska cruise with a Christian organization. Also, I just started another Christian radio show called "One Way Radio Network." From the show, I want to have mini conferences twice a year educating people about the different religions.

“I have the privilege of getting involved in people’s lives, finding out what their concerns are, and then providing solutions to get them to where they need to be.”

What is your favorite quote and who said it?

Hebrews 11:1. Faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. And John 3:3. You must be born again to see the Kingdom of God.

If you could have dinner with any one person, living or dead, who would that person be and why?

Christ, Dr. James Kennedy and Jerry Falwell.

What words of wisdom would you pass on to your childhood self?

Trust in God and He will guide and direct you. Delight in God and He'll give you the desires of your heart.

List one thing you wish you could change about yourself.

Accepting Christ at a young age instead of age 38.

If you could speak to everyone in the world at the same time, what would you say?

There is only one way to Heaven, and that is to repent of your sins and accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior.

Who is one of your heroes and why?

Jerry Falwell and Dr. James Kennedy. They had great vision and faith.

What is your most treasured memory?

11-10-86, accepting Christ as my Lord and Savior..

If you could have the answer to any one question, what would that question be?

When is Christ coming back?

If you were to die tomorrow, what would be your biggest regret?

Not telling more people about Jesus.

If you could live in a book, TV show or movie, what would it be and why?

Well done good and faithful steward who has fought the good fight. A movie about a wretch like me whom Jesus lifted up and used to help others leave a legacy.

YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT
SHERRI UNTIL NOW

What are 3 words people use to describe you?

Smart, Persistent, Honest.

If happiness were the national currency, what kind of work would make you rich?

Working on behalf of children in third world countries to give them a chance for a better life. I was once a social worker and will always be one at heart.

Name one thing not many people know about you.

I graduated from college at the age of 20 obtaining a four-year degree in 2 1/2 years with 15 extra credits while working.

What did you want to be when you were a child?

A veterinarian.

What are you most grateful for in your life?

My family.

What is the best advice you've ever been given?

Always do your own research and think for yourself.

What are your Top 3 all time favorite movies?

Gone With The Wind, Casablanca, Dirty Dancing (a classic dance movie).

What is your greatest achievement and how has it shaped you?

Being a mother. It's very humbling and at the same time rewarding. It's the most challenging position I've ever held.

What book has influenced you the most and why?

The Bible - everything is meaningless in life without a relationship with Jesus Christ. The Bible literally is basic instruction before leaving earth.

“I have the privilege of getting involved in people’s lives, finding out what their concerns are, and then providing solutions to get them to where they need to be.”

What one thing have you not done in your life that you really want to do?

Travel to Italy.

What is your favorite quote and who said it?

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and the wisdom to know the difference. By American theologian Reinhold Niebuhr.

If you could have dinner with any one person, living or dead, who would that person be and why?

Jesus Christ: he is the most important, most influential person who has ever lived. He died so that we may live.

What words of wisdom would you pass on to your childhood self?

The most important things in life cannot be bought. Don’t wish your life away. You are only young once.

List one thing you wish you could change about yourself.

I wish I were a better driver.

If you could speak to everyone in the world at the same time, what would you say?

The most important thing in life is where you will spend eternity. If you confess your sins and accept Jesus as Lord and Savior, you will spend eternity with him forever.

Who is one of your heroes and why?

All the members of our U.S. military who every day risk their lives to protect our freedom.

What is your most treasured memory?

Time spent reading my son his favorite stories when he was a baby.

If you could have the answer to any one question, what would that question be?

God, why do bad things happen to good people?

If you were to die tomorrow, what would be your biggest regret?

I wish I would have truly sought God’s will and direction for my life at an earlier age.

If you could live in a book, TV show or movie, what would it be and why?

Any of the Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers movies. Who wouldn’t want to be able to dance like them?
