

20 THINGS

YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT DIANE UNTIL NOW

What are 3 words people use to describe you?

Self-confident, Knowledgeable, Passionate.

If happiness was the national currency, what kind of work would make you rich?

What I've been doing the past 35+ years makes me happy, so, I'm rich already :).

Name one thing not many people know about you.

I fly fish -- I taught myself from YouTube videos, and it's my greatest meditation.

What did you want to be when you were a child?

I wanted to be a horse jockey; I was short, until I wasn't.

What are you most grateful for in your life?

Being able to share anything I have with anyone who needs something. There are few things that feel so good.

What is the best advice you've ever been given?

If you want someone to do something, plant a seed, and water it every now and then; when they think it's their idea, it will get done. I don't need the credit.

What are your Top 3 all time favorite movies?

Ghost, Outlander, The Old Guard.

What is your greatest achievement and how has it shaped you?

My children are honestly my greatest achievement. They made me more accountable, more responsible, more compassionate, more thoughtful in decision making, gave me immediate direction, goals and priorities that completely changed; things that weren't important became important, and things that were important didn't matter nearly as much, and overall I became a better me.

What book has influenced you the most and why?

"The Richest Man In Babylon." I walked away with the understanding that I must pay myself first, that a part of all I earn is mine to

Diane Marra, RFC
Registered Financial Consultant

“ I have the privilege of getting involved in people’s lives, finding out what their concerns are, and then providing solutions to get them to where they need to be. ”

keep, that I must control my spending, make my savings multiply and ensure future income.

What one thing have you not done in your life that you really want to do?

Rent a houseboat that comes with jet skis and take a 2-4 week cruise down the Mississippi River, or maybe the Colorado River.

What is your favorite quote and who said it?

“Every accomplishment starts with the decision to try.” -- John F. Kennedy

If you could have dinner with any one person, living or dead, who would they be and why?

My younger self. Because with the mistakes I’ve made, and the knowledge and the wisdom I have gathered over all of these years, I’m betting I could be her most valuable mentor.

What words of wisdom would you pass on to your childhood self?

Always seek to achieve balance in your life. There isn’t any one thing that deserves so much of your attention that the other areas of your life suffer because of it.

List one thing you wish you could change about yourself.

I wish I could narrow down my interests to a manageable size.

If you could speak to everyone in the world at the same time, what would you say?

Educate yourself. Don’t be a headline reader and think you know everything there is to know. Listen more -- we have two ears and one mouth for a reason.

Who is one of your heroes and why?

Anyone who stands up for what they believe in because those are the people who truly make a difference. Doers, those are my heroes.

What is your most treasured memory?

When I caught my first 3’ bass and it pulled me down the river without a paddle. Just kidding.... I have too many to list.

If you could have the answer to any one question, what would that question be?

How did we all get here?

If you were to die tomorrow, what would be your biggest regret?

Not finishing my bucket list, and I need 100 more years to complete it because there are just so many amazing things to do in the world.

If you could live in a book, TV show or movie, what would it be and why?

The Big Bang Theory, because I would laugh all day long.