Passionate, Loyal, Friendly.

If happiness was the national currency, what kind of work would make you rich?

Helping people understand that saved by the Grace of Jesus is the most important thing in this world to do.

Name one thing not many people know about you.

That I have a passion for helping people less fortunate than I am.

What did you want to be when you were a child?

A professional athlete that used his influence to help people find salvation with our Lord God.

What are you most grateful for in your life?

Salvation by the Grace of Jesus and my most precious wife and family.

What is the best advice you've ever been given?

Seek first the kingdom of God.

What are your Top 3 all time favorite movies?

Brian's Song, To Kill a Mocking Bird, Ten Commandments.

What is your greatest achievement and how has it shaped you?

Saved by the Grace of Jesus at age 14 and the privilege of having a 40-year, and counting, marriage to Gail, my precious wife, and the honor to be the father to our son, Ryan, who has blessed us with a wonderful daughter-in-law and 3 beautiful grandchildren.

What book has influenced you the most and why?

The Holy inspired word of God, The Bible.

What one thing have you not done in your life that you really want to do?

“ I have the privilege of getting involved in people’s lives, finding out what their concerns are, and then providing solutions to get them to where they need to be. ”

Have the satisfaction of knowing I became the best Christian possible, the best husband possible, the best father possible and the best grandfather possible.

What is your favorite quote and who said it?

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that whosoever believeth on him shall have everlasting life in Heaven with God.” -- John 3:16

If you could have dinner with any one person, living or dead, who would they be and why?

Jesus, the man with the greatest knowledge.

What words of wisdom would you pass on to your childhood self?

Fear not for God is with you.

List one thing you wish you could change about yourself.

I would love to look as young as I feel.

If you could speak to everyone in the world at the same time, what would you say?

In the end, God wins -- seek his love but fear his Wrath.

Who is one of your heroes and why?

Jesus, for his unimaginable sacrifice, which paid the Sin Debt for all of us who believe.

What is your most treasured memory?

The breathtaking feeling of happiness walking out of our church in 1981 with my new bride, Gail, holding my hand excited to see what path, what destiny, God would lead us on in our life ahead of us.

If you could have the answer to any one question, what would that question be?

How I could reach more people and help them not suffer the financial loss that 80% of people do when they get older and need a massive amount of money to pay people to take care of them when their bodies start failing.

If you were to die tomorrow, what would be your biggest regret?

I did not help enough people have a better quality of life.

If you could live in a book, TV show or movie, what would it be and why?

To be the best-known financial advisor in the TV show “Father Knows Best.” Living in an era when your word was as important as the law. When people actually cared about others and not just cared about what they can get from you.
